the dark lord.

My inner self cannot be slain.
My body cloak shall be destroyed.
My mortal house shall crumble away.
Be sure! My soul shall not fear the call of the dark lord.

My final sleep shall not be disturbed.

My final sleep shall not be interrupted.
My body shall be buried with the rites of eternity.
My body shall be cremated with eternal sacrament.
Be sure! My soul shall not fear the call of the dark lord.

My every form shall be recorded permanently in eternity.
My every thought shall be recorded permanently in eternity.
My every motion shall be recorded permanently in eternity.

Operating Thetan Symbol (Scientology): An emblem used as an insignia designating an "Operating Thetan" in Scientology. The shape is reminiscent of an Egyptian scarab (perhaps intentionally), but is a combined "O" and "T." In Scientology dogma, a thetan is analogous to the human soul. According to Scientology, "body thetans" are misplaced thetans that leech off the body of another, and cause a variety of ailments and personality/emotional problems. Behold! My Cosmic Mother Has Given Her Invitation

(Artist: Ivan Kramskoy Date: 1875)

My heart ignores the streams of change.

from the borders of this seemingly familiar land.
My cosmic mother has given a call.
Behold! My cosmic mother has given her invitation.

My cosmic delusion enshrouds me in ignorance.
My cosmic delusion enshrouds me in suffering.

midst of lunacy.
Behold! My cosmic mother has given her

My cosmic clay house shall remain unchanged.
Behold! My cosmic mother has given her invitation.

My primal energy shall remain unchanged.
My vibrations shall remain forever.

My mortal matter shall melt into nothingness.
My mortal kingdom shall be toppled.
Behold! My cosmic mother has given her invitation.

(Artist: Camille Corot Date: 1872)

My heart is no longer deluded by the changing manifestations.
My soul is no longer tortured by the changing manifestations.

My being remains indestructible.
My being shall never be touched by the fingers of decay.

My being can never be invaded by destruction.

Behold! My Soul Swallows the River That Flows From the Eternal Kingdom

(Artist: Thomas Cole Date: 1841)

My heart remains blessed under the stroke of the divine hammer.

My soul remains blessed under the stroke of the divine hammer.

My heart remains unchanged in the unending mortal trials.

My soul remains unruffled in the unending divine trials.

Behold! My soul swallows the river that flows from the eternal kingdom.

My heart swallows the river of sorrows.

My heart swallows the mortal monotony of existence.

My soul is struck by the divine contrast.

My heart is struck by the phenomenal world.

Behold! My soul swallows the river that flows from the eternal kingdom.

My heart revolves on the axis of desire.

My soul revolves on the axis of divinity.

My dark heart has received a message of joy.

Julbock (Christmas Goat): The Julbock or Yule-goat is a ubiquitous symbol of the winter holidays in Scandinavian countries. A throwback to Pre-Christian times, the Julbock is another Pagan Yule symbol that was absorbed into Christian holiday customs. In the Norse pagan religion, the goat was the conveyance of the gods- early images of Odin in a goat-drawn cart are eerily similar to later depictions of Santa Claus.
